

Is It a Job or Ministry?

If you're doing it because no one else will, it's a job.

If you're doing it to serve the Lord, it's a ministry.

If you're doing it just well enough to get by, it's a job.

If you're doing it to the best of your ability, it's a ministry.

If you'll do it so long as it doesn't interfere with other activities, it's a job

If you're committed to staying with it, even when it means letting go of other things, it's ministry.

If you quit because no one praised you or thanked you, it was a job.

If you stay with it even when no one seems to notice,

it's a ministry.

It's hard to get excited about a job. It's almost impossible not to get excited about a ministry.

People may say "Well Done" when you do your job.

The Lord will say "Well Done" when you complete your ministry.

An average church is filled with people doing jobs.

A great church is filled with people involved in ministry.

If God calls you to a ministry, for heaven's sake,
don't treat it like a job.
